To: All Faculty and Grad Students
From: Caroline Madden
Re: CESS/CREED conference on experimental economics

Dear all,

The Center for Experimental and Social Science is delighted to announce the program of the sixth bi-annual CESS/CREED (University of Amsterdam) Graduate Student Conference, which will take place on Friday September 16th 2011. You are all welcome to attend and, as you can see, the papers look interesting, and are always very well received.

Since we will be serving lunch, please let me know if you would like to attend.

Many thanks
Caroline

Venue: Silver, Room 514, 100 Washington Square E, New York, NY 10003
CESS-CREED New-York 2011 Workshop on Experimental Economics
September 16th, 2011

8.45-9.30 – Arrival – Breakfast

9.30 - 10.05 Roel van Veldhuizen: "Bribery and the fair salary hypothesis in the lab"

10.05 - 10.40 Ailko van der Veen: "How to prevent workers from shirking: the use and effectiveness of rewards and punishments in the inspection game"

10.40 - 11.15 Yang Yang: "Simple tests of social preferences: inequity aversion and efficiency revisited"
11.15 - 11.35  Break

11.35 - 12.10  Noemi Peter: "Multitasking: productivity effects and gender differences"

12.10 - 12.45  Pedro Robalo: "Value orientation, group identity and voter turnout: an experimental analysis"

12.45 - 13.45  Lunch

13.45 - 14.20  Jona Linde: "Nudge, side effects may include: inattention or guidance"

14.20 - 14.55  Te Bao: "An experiment on learning, forecasting and trading"

14.55 - 15.15  Break

15.15 - 15.50  Thomas de Haan: "First strike"

15.50 - 16.25  Thomas Buser: "Competitiveness and career choice"

Caroline Madden
Program Administrator
CESS
Department of Economics
New York University
19 W. 4th Street, 6th Floor
New York, NY 10012
Tel: 212-992-8660
Fax: 212-995-3932
E-mail: caroline.madden@nyu.edu